

IT Support and Heavy Lift Requirements to Manage to Transportation of Spanish Troops for NATO Response Force 16

SMi Group Reports: Hear about NATO's VJTF 16 at Defence Logistics Central and Eastern Europe next March

LONDON, SELECT, UNITED KINGDOM, December 7, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As NATO increases its military presence in the Central and Eastern European region and Spain's term serving as the lead nation for NATO's Very High Readiness Joint Task Force (VJTF) comes to an end, SMi Group are thrilled to announce that its conference, Defence Logistics Central and Eastern Europe will include insight on some of the key logistics requirements with an exclusive presentation on: 'IT Support and Heavy Lift Requirements to Manage to Transportation of Spanish Troops for NATO Response Force 16', covering:

- The Spanish operational experience in the lead of VHJTF. The challenge of synchronising multinational deployments
 - JLSG lessons learned and the need of a multinational logistics structure
 - Integration of logistics capabilities via Host Nation Support. Limits of HNS and contractors support Spanish logistics working in net
 - Logistics HQ in support of a LCC and sustainment planning process
- Led by: Brigadier General Jose Luis Sanchez Alor, Commander Logistics Brigade from the Spanish Army.

This is just one of the many high level presentations at next year's event. Taking place in Prague, Czech Republic on the 7th and 8th March 2017, the event will include an unrivalled and diverse, international speaker line-up of military and industry logistics experts, ready to cover some of the most up-to-date capabilities, operations and procurements in today's armed forces.
