PUNE, INDIA, December 8, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global Chocolate Confectionery Overview: Challenges, Opportunities and Risks

Substitution for other snacks, negative health perceptions and a slowdown in growth in promising markets threatens to undermine the global chocolate confectionery market. With more snacks now available, chocolate is losing its dominant position as the default snack for many. This threat brings about opportunities that may cause a permanent shift in how chocolate is consumed around the world, with the product becoming more visible in the markets of Asia while becoming less of an impulse choice...
