

MyHuntPath Partners with the Cleveland-Based Non-profit, Open Doors Academy

CLEVELAND, OH, CUYAHOGA, December 8, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MyHuntPath {MyHuntPath.com} started a partnership with the Greater Cleveland-based, non-profit, Open Doors Academy {opendoorsacademy.org}. The partnership will provide MyHuntPath Career Education seminars that include topics to help individuals define their career goals and how to obtain them through S.M.A.R.T planning, networking, and resume building. In addition to the seminars, all participating scholars will receive a one year subscription to the MyHuntPath.com career education platform. The ongoing partnership will benefit both companies as Open Doors Academy works to protect, inspire, nurture and challenge adolescents to reach their full potential.

MyHuntPath President, Randy Rohde, states, "MyHuntPath is excited to create an opportunity where Open Doors Academy scholars can explore their individualized path toward college and career success. We are providing unique career education seminars to encourage scholars to define values, interests and skills and create a "Business Plan for Life."

About MyHuntPath

MyHuntPath is the Headhunter's approach to individual career management. It combines a Customer Relationship Management / Applicant Tracking System application, private job-board, and content and training based on this approach to teach individuals, from high school students to CEOs, the concepts required to evolve from passive job seekers to proactive job hunters. www.MyHuntPath.com
