SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO, USA, December 9, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- e-Nabler Corp announced that eMobilePOS, an award-winning POS software for tablet and mobile point-of-sale will be used for admission and retail merchandise sales at the World Salsa Championships and other events in 2017 and beyond.

Event organizers have chosen eMobilePOS running on a Samsung Galaxy Android tablet and it is paired with the Star Micronics mPOP that combines a cash drawer and receipt printer in one sleek, space-saving design. The tablet is placed in a stand for countertop use most of the time, but can quickly be released for line busting if lines get longer.

“eMobilePOS enables us to streamline ticket sales with the ability for visitors to conveniently pay with credit card at the door,” says Noel Roque, president of the World Salsa Championships. “The same POS solution is also used for all merchandise sales during the event, allowing visitors to use credit cards for all purchases with significant impact on our sales revenue.”

“eMobilePOS is honored to work with a world-class organization such as the World Salsa Championships,” says Joel Vázquez, CEO and president of e-Nabler. “By partnering with Star we are able to offer the World Salsa Championship a complete POS solution that works really well in a venue-based environment and has the ability to handle tickets, merchandise, and food sales.”
