

Piano Masterclasses for WKMT students London

At WKMT we have taken the decision of starting with a series of masterclasses aimed to integrate our student community.

LONDON, LONDON, UK, December 10, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- It is paramount for our studio to motivate our prospect musicians. They need to meet each other and see how each one of them experiences music.

The first Masterclass is scheduled for January the 20th 2017. It will be delivered at our Grand Piano Room at our Kensington branch and it will be 2 hours long. This lesson will be delivered by our principal, Juan Rezzuto. He will aim to lecture about Vicente Scaramuzza Technique, applied to the pieces presented by six selected students. This will be a great chance to see how all our different teaching approaches integrate. Every teacher will choose one student above 7 years of age to present as his or her candidate for the January masterclass. The student must present one piece no longer than 5 minutes. The piece will be played and the lecturer will give general advice.

The selection needs to be made before January 10th. Your teacher will need to let us know about name of the student and piece to be presented. Your teacher can choose to come or not.

Once we got the selection we will shortlist 6 students to be present at the masterclass based on their level and affinity of the pieces chosen.

We hope to count with your pro-active collaboration. Please feel free to ask any questions when at the studio.
