"Darrol has been involved in many aspects of Veteran programs and employment issues over the course of his career," said Keith King, President of the NVBDC. "He has been on our Board for over two years now and has attended National Veteran Conferences on our behalf, and presented the NVBDC to a number of business and Veteran group events."

Darrol lives in Nevada, but as a former Regional Board of Directors member of the Vietnam Veterans of America (VVA), he covered seven Western states for that organization.

role as an Officer," said King.
General Richard Miller concurs: "Darrol is dedicated and experienced with veterans and veterans' issues."

Darrol served 3+ years in the U.S. Air Force as a Communications Analysis Specialist, stationed at Misawa Air Base, Japan and Ramasun Army Station, Thailand. He has been vigorously involved in a wide range of voluntary activities related to Veterans' affairs over the years.

VP Brown was born in Ohio and moved to Nevada in 1982. He has been married to the former Loretta M. Laughlin for 46 years with two daughters and six grandchildren. Darrol is a life member of VVA and also has memberships in VFW, American Legion, Welcome All Veterans Everywhere (WAVE, his local Veterans Community Council in Douglas County, Nevada), and several other veteran-related service organizations.

CERTIFIED SUCCESS

Since our certification ...many exciting opportunities have already come about. In just the first month, suppliers have allowed Fulmer to begin bidding on services... including the likes of Kelloggs, Dana Business Holdings, Flex N Gate and Whirlpool, just to name a few. These are organizations that potentially bring huge opportunities and I cannot express my excitement enough to finally be in a position to compete for some of this business! — Jessica
