Creative Life Publishing Releases New Book By Christian Author, Speaker and Bible Study Director Dave Frett

The 52 week Christian Devotional of Battlestrong: The Crusade For Conquering and Preserving Faith is the first book in the series of several in production. Tricia Andreassen, CEO of Creative Life Publishing and Learning Institute is a part of the launch for this book as well as in development work with Frett to create Bible Study curriculum that can be used in churches or personal study programs throughout the country. This book is specifically focused on building one's personal faith and putting into practice certain actions and mindset strategies to accomplish this.

“Along the way to writing and developing BattleStrong, God has taught me, grown me and instilled in me a desire to share with His Saints. Believers today need to hear and re-hear those encouraging words of God. In a world that seeks to deflate, discourage and destroy anyone that is willing to stand up for their faith in Christ, he will need to be encouraged – not with words of man's wisdom but with words that are grounded and rooted in the Word of God. The first of the BattleStrong series focuses on the most basic, yet integral and imperative role of the Christian life – Faith. The Bible describes faith as, “the confidence that what we hope for will actually happen; it gives us assurance about things we cannot see.” As believers we are in a continual, daily spiritual war.” Comments Frett. The book can be purchased at <https://www.amazon.com/BattleStrong-Crusade-Conquering-Preserving->
