

Appliance Repair 512 Launches a new Technician Training Program

Appliance Repair 512, A leading appliance repair service in Austin, has invested extensively in training and educating their dedicated team of technicians.

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, December 15, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Technicians are regularly sent to attend seminars and training sessions on the latest household appliances and the most effective and affordable ways to repair and service these items. They are also regularly updated on the appliance industry's latest technological advancements. The Appliance Repair 512 team also recently attended the Annual Service Training Institute (ASTI) training, which is the largest appliance service training convention in the country.

In their commitment to providing top-quality service, Appliance Repair 512 have also equipped each technician with an iPad Pro as well as the latest tools and technology, which they can use in the field. As Steve Hamuy, the manager at Appliance Repair 512 explained, "We strongly believe in the power of technology and in providing our technicians with the right resources and tools that enable them to carry out their jobs with ease and excellence. In this way, we are able to meet and in most cases, exceed our customer's expectations."

Appliance Repair 512 services the residents of Austin and the surrounding areas, offering repairs on all makes and models of home appliances including microwaves, ovens, refrigerators, washers and dryers, disposals, dishwashers, compactors, wine coolers, water heaters and more.

Repairs and services are provided 24/7, enabling the Appliance Repair 512 technicians to address emergencies at any time of the day or night, including weekends and holidays. In addition, the company only uses original parts to ensure the longevity of each appliance.
