

Auto/Mate's DMS Integrated with DealerOps Platform; Giving Auto Dealers Actionable Insight Into Enterprise Analytics

ALBANY, NY, UNITED STATES,
December 19, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/

-- Auto/Mate Dealership Systems announced today that its dealership management system (DMS) is fully integrated with the DealerOps Platform, expanding auto dealers' actionable insight into their enterprise-wide analytics. Dealerships that use both vendors' solutions will now receive automatic and seamless updates from their Automotive Management Productivity Suite (AMPS) software into their DealerOps Platform.

"The DealerOps Platform and its powerful reporting engine allows auto dealers to instantly view their metrics and data while giving them an important 'big picture' overview with drill down into the finer details. The DealerOps Platform provides the tools dealerships need to not only monitor performance, but to also improve operational efficiencies across the board," said Mike Esposito, President and CEO of Auto/Mate.

Auto/Mate's Open/Mate integration process was fast, easy and inexpensive. We appreciate their technical support team that kept the process headache-free.
