About HQNYC:

Headquarters Gentlemen's Club, otherwise known as HQNYC, has been voted "The Best Strip Club in New York" by online review site City Search. Formed by club industry stars in 2005 using decades of both nightclub and strip club experience, HQ is a bi-level club boasts a four-star bistro, over a dozen executive suites, and beautiful champagne galleries. The plush interior of HQ continues to attract photo shoots for models of Playboy and Penthouse, fashion runway shows, as well as music video shoots for artists appearing on MTV, VH1, and Fuse. They have also had the pleasure working with Sirius XM, FM radio personalities, The Independent Film Channel, and most recently, the TLC channel, which shot a scene at HQ for their new reality show, "Breaking Amish." It is frequently used by rapper 50Cent's website, www.thisis50.com, to interview stars of music, comedy, and the adult industry.
