

BeautyStat.com Review Calls HorseOPeace.com Goat Milk Soaps “Superior” Skincare Product Line

Rave review says “excellent line of products offered at a shockingly affordable price”

NEW YORK, December 22, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A product review by BeautyStat.com, the top beauty blog, rated HorseOPeace.com goat milk soaps as “a superior line of products made by a small eco-conscious company,” announced Elizabeth and Nick Sanders of HorseOPeace.com, the quality leader in goat milk soap skincare products.

Elizabeth said, “We’re honored the famed beauty platform and leading blog wonderfully called HorseOPeace.com goat milk soaps and other skincare products ‘excellent’ in such a comprehensive and rave review.”

HorseOPeace.com Scented goat milk soaps, right, and Unscented soaps, left, separated by Shea butter cream and Lip Balm, are most moisturizing natural goat milk skincare products available anywhere.

Beauty and fashion writer Yona McDonough, the BeautyStat.com Editor who reviewed HorseOPeace.com, said, “This is an excellent line of products offered at a shockingly affordable price. Founder Elizabeth Sanders began making soap from milk she coaxed from her sister’s goats and since then she’s handmade over 55,000 bars of soap; that’s a lot of bubbles!” Her review is posted at BeautyStat.com.

McDonough said as the HorseOPeace.com goat milk soaps lather “they provide a rich, lustrous cascade of foam.” She added the soap “bars are cured for at least six weeks, to give them longer life, and are 4.5 to 5 ounces each. The Plain Lip Balm had a wonderful, toasted coconut scent and was very effective on my winter-dry lips.” The BeautyStat.com editor reviewed scented and unscented soaps, Shea butter cream and lip balms, all available online at HorseOPeace.com.

In her review she said, “The soaps have subtle and intriguing scents. I loved the delicate fragrance of Lavender and the invigorating tang of Peppermint & Rosemary.” McDonough added HorseOPeace.com scented soaps “not at all drying, a common side effect I’ve experienced with many scented soaps.”

The acclaimed BeautyStat.com writer, in referring HorseOPeace.com prices as “shockingly affordable,” reported soap bars are $5.50 to 6.95, Shea butter creams $4.50 to $9.00 and 3-pack Lip Balms $8.99.

She said, “At these prices, the soaps, butters and balms can go into every Christmas stocking on your list.”

Nick Sanders added, “HorseOPeace.com also offers family-priced Gift Sets. We are pleased to be nationally reviewed very favorably. Our HorseOPeace.com all-natural, chemical-free products don’t contain any color additives and our soaps are made with 100% raw goat milk, without water that competitors add to cut costs.
