Today sees the launch of www.GaryTaffet.com, a website dedicated to giving sound and accurate advice on insurance matters.

WOODBIDGE, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, December 27, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Today sees the launch of www.GaryTaffet.com, a website dedicated to giving sound and accurate advice on insurance matters and authored by none other than Gary Taffet himself – the Divisional President of the Reliance Insurance Group.

The Reliance Insurance Group is revered and respected in New Jersey as a complete and comprehensive insurance brokerage firm, serving businesses and individuals alike on insurance matters such as employee benefits and voluntary benefits. Gary Taffet is Divisional President of Reliance, while also managing and overseeing many client relationships, making him an all-round specialist in the field of insurance.

The purpose and goal of Gary's new website is to provide solid advice on a range of important insurance topics to consumers and businesses alike. He touches on subjects that even large insurance companies should consider, such as the complex topic of reinsurance, and also, he offers valuable advice on relevant subjects such as corporate retirement plan options, health insurance plans and more.

With two decades' worth of insurance experience and government administration, Gary Taffet is well placed to give advice on a full spectrum of insurance matters, and topics that he feels will be useful and helpful in today's insurance markets. With this new website, it allows all interested entities to return frequently to read about a variety of interesting subjects that Gary hopes will prove to be invaluable.

Included is also a facility to request free insurance information. This information pack draws on Gary's vast knowledge in the field of insurance, as well as his experience working as a key official in the New Jersey State Government. The contact form on the front page will allow readers to receive a comprehensive guide to a broad range of insurance topics.

Each and every article Gary writes will be available for reading now and in the future, with stories and articles from previous months stored in an easy-to-navigate archive section.

Gary hopes this new website will be educational and informative for everyone seeking in-depth, knowledgeable, and well-written insights into today's busy insurance world. To learn more about Gary Taffet visit www.GaryTaffet.com.
