

Wendie Berry of Soulutions to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

HIGHRIDGE, MISSOURI, USA, January 3, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Just as we have physical checkups once a year to see how we're doing, everyone should have a life checkup to make sure we are in alignment for what we want and what our soul wants for us.

Nursing is the original healing profession. For more than 30 years, Wendie Berry brought her skills as a nurse to operating rooms, hospice care facilities, middle schools and chemical dependency clinics to serve patients. Now Wendie finds herself on a new journey of healing as a soul practitioner and founder of Soulutions, a coaching practice dedicated to helping clients unleash their inner magic and live exciting, extraordinary, noteworthy lives filled with passion and purpose.

"I work with people who are sick and tired of living boring mundane lives. They drag themselves out of bed in the morning wondering why they bother," says Wendie. "I believe that each of us is born into this world to do something specific. We only feel like we have mundane lives when we're not in alignment with our soul's purpose. We can heal by bringing our soul into alignment. We can heal, we can be well and we can prosper."

With Soulutions, Wendie is still doing what she's always done: caring for the whole person. Even as a nurse, Wendie looked beyond the physical so patients could gain insight into themselves to make changes.

"My favorite part of nursing was finding out who the person was, what made them tick and help them to grow as a person. I learned what I was doing was taking care of someone's soul," says Wendie. "When I'm working with my clients today, I'm still looking at them 'wholistically:' how their physical, emotional, spiritual aspects interact with each other."

So why is your soul here? What's its purpose? What are you doing on a daily basis to keep your soul and its purpose in alignment? Wendie teaches her clients daily activities to take care of their soul.

“When people are in distress everything is out of focus and life seems like it’s crazy but I believe each person has the wisdom within them,” says Wendie. “What feeds my soul is helping other people realize and connect to themselves and make changes. That’s my goal.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Wendie Berry in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on January 5th at 1pm EST.
