PUNE, INDIA, January 6, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global ERP Software Market

The Global ERP Software market is projected to reach $47.71 billion by 2022 growing at a CAGR of 7.0% during the forecast period. Some of the key drivers for the market growth include reduced operational cost in IT, surge in cloud technology and data transparency on real-time basis, whereas high costs of ERP software, time-consuming ERP deployments and too little customization are some of the key factors inhibiting the growth of ERP Software market.

Asia-Pacific would evident to be one of the most productive markets in terms of growth. On-premise ERP software would continue to have a larger market share occupying more than 50% of the global market through the forecast period. Among the various modules, finance module is estimated to drive the ERP software market by the year 2022, and would contribute to nearly one third of the overall market revenue. Workday, Workforce Software, Cornerstone OnDemand and NetSuite are the five fastest-growing ERP vendors worldwide since 2012. SAP retained its market leadership position in 2013, followed by Oracle, Infor and Microsoft.
