

Jonny McGovern Pokes Fun At Crystal Queens, Circuit Queens And Bottoms In Hilarious New Music Video

Comedian and Hey Qween! host Jonny McGovern releases new music video "Gay Questions" on the WOWie Award Winning YouTube channel HeyQween.tv.

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, January 16, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This comedy ballad (produced by Hey Qween! musical director Adam Joseph) from Jonny's Gayest Of All Time Album is a fan favorite from Jonny's live performances.

"It's not a song I'd typically thought I'd make a video for, it's a ballad with super snarky, super dark lyrics, but the over the top positive response I got from people when I perform it live made me change my mind" says McGovern. The song was even featured as a "Lost Classic" by LGBT blog Queerty last year.

It asks a number of seemingly naive questions directed at circuit queens, non-monogamous homo life partners... and crystal queens, managing to get increasingly ludicrous as the song progresses”

"Circuit queen, you are so muscly... you are so lean... do you ever eat? Do you ever have a sandwich with bread, a sandwich with bread...?"

So begins "Gay Questions," an epically overblown four-and-a-half minute faux-torch song, complete with heavily AutoTuned lead vocals, increasingly filthy lyrics, and plaintive piano arpeggios calling to mind baleful performance artists stridently waving streamers.

The song succeeds as both a hilarious takedown of some of the foibles modern gay man face, as well as the penchant that some overly comfortable straight people have about asking presumptuous questions to said modern gay men.

"It asks a number of seemingly naive questions directed at circuit queens, non-monogamous homo life partners, two-handed fisting bottoms, and crystal queens, managing to get increasingly ludicrous as the song progresses, and ending each verse with the chorus, "I've got gay questions, and I need gay answers.""

The clip also acts as a teaser for Season 5 of McGovern's hit web show Hey Qween! premiering in March. The video features cameos from Jonny's Hey Qween! cohorts including drag diva Lady Red Couture, Greg McKeon and Walter Delmar plus comedian Justin Martindale, Where The Bears Are star Chad Sanders and more. Hey Qween! currently sits at 25 million views and rising.

McGovern has a long history of making viral music videos beginning with 2003's worldwide smash Soccer Practice, Something For The Fellas (That like The Fellas) which spent 12 weeks at #1 on LOGO's The Click List, Dickmatized, Sexy Nerd, Bossy Bottom and many more.
