"It is ridiculous how expensive funerals and cremations have become." says Mike Matos, the owner and funeral director at Vilonia Funeral Home. Mike further states, "I think many funeral homes have focused on providing the most elequent buildings with antiques, expensive cars, etc. and have left many families behind. We find today, that most families are looking for a funeral home and funeral director that will provide compassionate care, handle the arrangements with professionalism, and show respect to the deceased. While they still want a nice funeral or memorial service, many customers could care less about a 100,000.00 Hearse, Limo, and a multi-million dollar facility."

Vilonia Funeral Home offers a small, family oriented, home like facility and all around comfortable atmosphere to the families that they serve. Mike says, "We like to invest in our families, and spend money on the things that really matter to them. Like the adequate amount of staff necessary to provide a meaningful Celebration of Life or a simple direct cremation. Our interest is on the families we serve, not expensive real estate, cars, and huge profit margins. This enables us to pass the savings on to our families and reduce the cost of funerals and cremations by 50% compared to others in the area."

Vilonia Funeral Home offers both traditional burials with a casket and/or a vault. The funeral home also offers a variety of affordable cremation plans.
