

Level Office adds three floors, custom suites to Wacker location

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, January 27, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Coworking space provider Level Office is expanding its footprint in the Loop with the purchase of three additional floors at 211 W Wacker, bringing the company's total Chicago-area workspace to more than 250,000 square feet. The Chicago-based company acquired the floors on January 19 and will immediately begin developing customized office suites for 10- to 75-person companies, as well as smaller private offices.

"We are proud of our growth in Chicago. We have seen huge demand from high-growth companies for flexible, customizable office suites with a combination of privacy and open space, kitchenette, and conference rooms," said Bill Bennett, Founder of Level Office. "We are excited to continue supporting Chicago's entrepreneurial community with beautiful, affordable space to grow their businesses."

Level Office currently offers two floors of coworking space and 1- to 15-person private offices at 211 W Wacker. In May, the company added six additional floors at its 318 W Adams location for customized office suites, which are now fully leased. Pricing for the 10- to 75-person office suites starts at $2,999 a month and includes fiber internet, private entry, kitchenette, and conference room.

Additional features include access to communal lounge areas with amenities such as an espresso bar, local beer on tap, and on-site administrative support. With pricing of $199 a month for coworking memberships and starting at $349 for private offices, Level Office provides small businesses and entrepreneurs with high-caliber amenities that are typically only available to large companies.
