Sheila May of Gourmet Living explains the following, "These Italian regulations are in place to insure the integrity of the product for the consumer. Gourmet Livings sells only products meet these stringent requirements so that people can actually enjoy the true taste of balsamic vinegar of Modena."

Goccia Nera is a less expensive balsamic vinegar best suited for vinaigrettes, glazes and marinades. While most commercial balsamic vinegars have a density level of below 1.04, Goccia Nera has a density level of 1.07 and is more viscous. It's 250ml bottle is heavily discounted from its normal retail price of $19.25. In fact, for Valentine's Day, one can purchase this balsamic vinegar for only $14.75.

Goccia d'Oro is a premium grade balsamic vinegar with a density level of 1.33. This award-winning balsamic vinegar comes with an attractive display box and wax seal and makes a great gift for cooks and gourmands seeking a high-quality balsamic vinegar. This is a must-have gift for fellow gourmands on Valentine's Day.

Gourmet Living's balsamic vinegar product line has been created to give buyers an authentic taste of artisan vinegars at various price points to suit their budget. A few drops of this vinegar is all that is needed to create a dish that tastes as if it were made in the heart of Italy itself. These vinegars are made from pressed Trebbiano and Lambrusco grapes in Modena, Italy, and then aged in oak, chestnut and cherry barrels.
