

Georgia Corporate Whistleblower Center Now Urges a Nursing Home Employee or a Healthcare Worker in Georgia to Call Them About Rewards If Their Employer Is Grossly Overbilling Medicare

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, February 23, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Georgia Corporate Whistleblower Center is now urging an employee of a Georgia based nursing home, skilled nursing facility, a hospice provider, a dialysis center or a rehab center to call them anytime at 866-714-6466 if their employer is up-coding Medicare bills, and or billing Medicare for services never rendered. The reward potential for these types of whistleblowers can be significant if the overbilling is widespread and or if the overbilling/up-coding of Medicare bills has been going on for years. <http://Georgia.CorporateWhistleblower.Com>

The Center says, "We are certain there are healthcare workers throughout the state of Georgia who routinely see their employer rip-off Medicare. As one example nursing home employees might see their constantly short-staffed nursing home owner bill Medicare each month as if the facility was fully staffed. In another example employees of a rehab center/skilled nursing facility might see their employer/owner bill Medicare each month for dozens or hundreds of medical procedures that never happened.

"If you work for a healthcare provider in Georgia and you possess this type of information please feel free to call us anytime at 866-714-6466 to discuss the reward potential of your information. Please don't sit on a potentially winning lotto ticket without ever discovering what it might be worth." <http://Georgia.CorporateWhistleblower.Com>

Simple rules for a whistleblower from the Georgia Corporate Whistleblower Center: Do not go to the government first if you are a potential whistleblower with substantial proof of wrongdoing. The Georgia Corporate Whistleblower Center says, "Major whistleblowers frequently go to the government thinking they will help. It's a huge mistake. Do not go to the news media with your whistleblower information. Public revelation of a whistleblower's information could destroy any prospect for a reward. Do not try to force a company/employer or individual to come clean about significant Medicare fraud, overbilling the federal government for services never rendered, multi-million-dollar state or federal tax evasion, or a Georgia based company falsely claiming to be a minority owned business to get preferential treatment on federal or state projects. Come to us first, tell us what type of information you have, and if we think it's sufficient, we will help you with a focus on you getting rewarded."
