Omaha, NE – Strength and perseverance come from within. What we do in the face of adversity can define our very existence. No matter what obstacles are thrust upon us, it's essential to remember that anything is possible. Within moments of speaking with Life Coach, Intuitive Consultant and Motivational Speaker Paula Cellar, you can understand, control and excel with the power that you hold within yourself.

Paula's illustrious background includes earning Bachelor's degrees in Psychology and Special Education along with Master's degrees in Special Education and Agency Counseling. Paula excelled for over 40 years in the human service industry as a special education teacher, social services administrator and rehabilitation counselor before deciding to head out on her own as a certified Life Coach and Intuitive Consultant.

The aforementioned achievements are no small task for any individual but in Paula's case, many people are simply amazed. Paula's strength was tested from birth as she was born two and a half months early, diagnosed with cerebral palsy and retinopathy, and would face the passing of her mother all by the time she was four years old.

Raised by her grandmother, Paula became highly equipped in the art of reading people and situations. With the help and direction from her teachers throughout her adolescence, Paula was able to cultivate her talent for helping others. The rest is a series of success stories that Paula has been able to share and incorporate when assisting others with their own personal development. At www.paulacellar.com, people can view her incredible story and all of the fascinating services she provides.

From the "Oh Joy" moments to the "Oh No" moments, Paula utilizes a holistic approach that is unique and specific to each client she works with. Whether it's public speaking, private events, workshops or individual sessions: Paula assists people to create/set healthy boundaries, live with vitality, realize their dreams and reach their ultimate potential.

"My mission is to use motivational coaching and intuitive skills to create permanent, positive life change. I offer practical tools and strategies for people seeking inner peace, simplicity and gifts of their intuitive knowing.

I serve individuals, couples, families, groups, businesses and the larger community," exclaims Cellar.

Paula Cellar will be featured on ACC News Talk Radio www.blogtalkradio.com/accglobalmmedia on Wednesday February 22nd at 12pm EST. For more information about Paula Cellar visit or call 402-763-9957.
