

Free Staffing Agency Marketing Offered By Funding Company

HGS Funding Inc partners with their clients by offering free staffing agency marketing to drive more inbound leads.

RANCH CUCAMONGA, CA, USA,
February 23, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ --
HGS Funding Inc is offering free staffing agency marketing to all clients.

“One of the biggest problems for any company including staffing agency is how to obtain more clients. It seems a natural extension of our funding to offer free staffing agency marketing as a value added service,” states Sartaj Singh, President of HGS Funding Inc.

Funding company offers free staffing agency marketing

Based in Rancho Cucamonga California, HGS is one of the leading funding companies for staffing agencies in the country. Unlike many others, HGS is self-funded and can make decisions quicker than banks.

Free staffing agency marketing offered to help our clients grow their business.”

Sartaj Singh

Singh continues, “Why would we offer free marketing services? Simple, we consider it an investment in our clients. The more we sincerely partner with our clients, the bigger they grow. Consequently we grow too. It is a win-win situation.”

“Every month there are thousands of online searches for staffing agency services. Prospects are going to Google, AOL, Yahoo! and Bing because they have a specific need and are searching for the right provider. “Part of the marketing service we are offering is making sure that our clients are in front of prospects at the exact time of the search.

“As part of our staffing agency marketing service we will build and host, free of charge, a website that WILL rank on the first page of Google, AOL, Yahoo! and Bing.

“Searchers usually find what they are looking for on the first page of the search engines. As most staffing agency websites have never been ranked on the first page the site has never generated any leads.

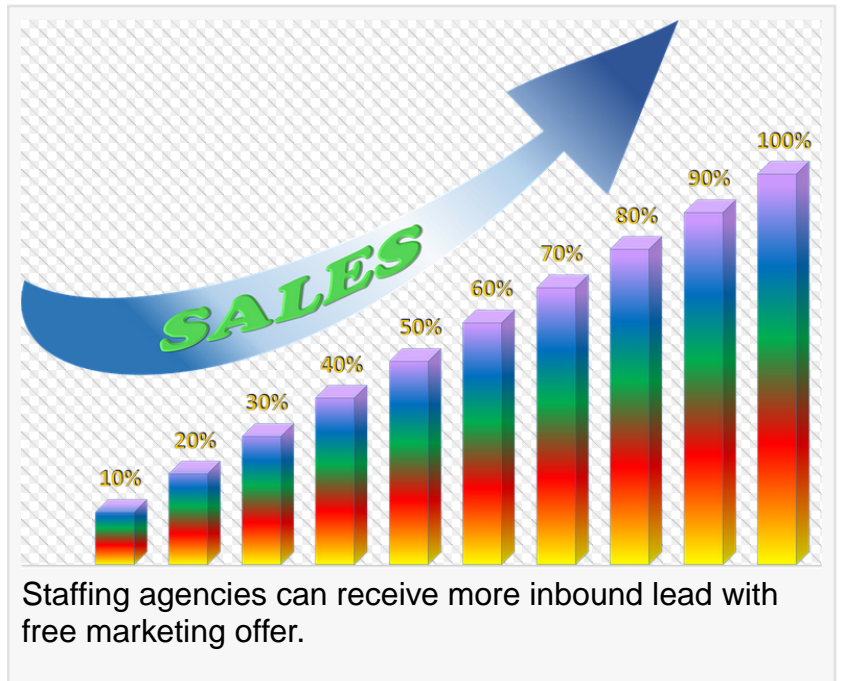

“Being on the first page, our clients will start receiving inbound calls and emails that previously had been going to direct competitors. All telephone and email leads go directly and exclusively to the staffing agency in real time.

“We are unaware of any other funding companies in the country that can offer this type of staffing agency marketing as a value added service together with competitive rates.

“Who should call us? Staffing agencies that want to grow!” concludes Singh.
