

Talent INC Canada Announces 2107 Canadian National Conference Overall Winners

Actors from Ottawa, Toronto, Calgary, Edmonton and Winnipeg gathered to compete professionally in front of top entertainment industry panelists.

TORONTO, ON, CANADA, March 1, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Each year, some of the most powerful people in the Canadian entertainment industry gather together at Talent INC Canada's national conference for actors. It is there that actors from across Canada converge to perform and network with these industry professionals over the course of 5 days.

Actors performed in film scenes, improvisation, voice over, print, cold reading, commercial and hosting. Their combined scores earned them full scholarships to attend the 2018 event which is already well underway in terms of planning.

Here are the overall winners for each category for this year's Talent INC Canada National Conference for Actors.

The overall winner for Youth Talent was dancer, Jasmin Flores of Toronto. Her scores were the highest in Talent INC Canada history.

In the adult division of Talent the winner was vocalist, Sarah Hilder of Winnipeg, Manitoba. She was a stand out performer and we know she made her province proud.

The bar gets set higher every year. Not because of anything we have done as a company, but because of the level of talent that is being drawn to our event"

Our overall winner for Child Actor was the adorable, Ria Swaminath. Ria's combined scores for Improv, Films Scene and TV Commercial earned her this top spot.

This year the overall Female Actor award went to the incredibly talented Micah Kalisch of Toronto. Micah wowed the audience with her deep emotional connection to the scripted material. Her combined scores in Improv, Film Scene and TV Commercial earned her this overall award.

The overall Male Actor award went to Toronto's, Shuwayne Mitchell. Shuwayne's combined scores in Improv, Film Scene and TV Commercial won him this award.

Spencer Bussiere from Edmonton won the overall award for Child Commercial Actor. Spencer's combined scores in Print, TV Commercial and Improv were the highest. We know Alberta is very proud of him.

In the overall Adult Commercial Actor category, Theodore Saunders of Toronto won. His combined scores for Print, TV Commercial and Improv were the highest.

The Youth Voiceover competition was the closest it has ever been, but Spencer Douglas of Toronto was named champion for having the highest scores and most interest from the industry panelists.

In the Adult Voiceover division, Alethea Annirood of Toronto won with her outstanding scores from the VIP panelists. Alethea is a dedicated student and put a lot of time and effort into her recording.

Lastly, Kurt Logan won the overall Talent INC Canada Host. Hosting has become an important skill for actors and Talent INC Canada was the first to really address this need from casting.

Doug Sloan and John Stevens wish to convey their congratulations to each of the recipients and they look forward to their performances at the 2018 event.
