NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, February 24, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- eQuiz has been nominated in the 13th International Mobile Gaming Awards Global. The IMGA is the longest standing and highest regarded mobile games award program started in 2004.

eQuiz comes to the market by SilverMotion, Inc. a startup based out of New York. eQuiz brings heavy competition to the leaders in trivia games, QuizUp and Trivia Crack, with its sophisticated and rich gameplay not found in the leading competitors.

"Nominees like eQuiz highlight the new standard of creativity and the emerging quality of the productions found in mobile gaming", said Maarten Noyons, founder of The IMGA.

"We couldn't be more proud to be nominated by the IMGA. We are honored to be recognized among the top mobile games of the year as a new publisher and with our very first game. It's incredibly humbling to share a nomination with Pokémon Go, SuperMario Run and the other incredible games in the space. We are ready and excited to share eQuiz with the world.", said Oscar Negroni, co-founder of SilverMotion, Inc.

As a nominee, eQuiz is also eligible to win the People's Choice Award, which is voted online by fans across the globe. eQuiz leads the other nominees in shares. From now until February 27, 2017 eQuiz fans and gamers can cast their votes at <http://www.imgawards.com/games/equiz/>.

Winners will be announced on February 28, 2017 during the highly anticipated IMGA ceremony, which will take place in San Francisco.
