

Empowered Woman of the Month Barbara Anne Rose of Goddess of the Rose to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

NEWARK, DELAWARE, USA, March 1, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CUTV News today announced Barbara Anne Rose has been named its Empowered Woman of the Month for March. CUTV News Radio will feature Barbara in an interview with Doug Llewelyn every Friday from March 3rd to March 24th at 2pm EST.

“To be empowered is to embrace the power within you as a woman: your creative energy,” says Rose. “Too many women give up this power. When a woman embraces her creative energy, she emanates a vibration that she is strong and not afraid to shine her light.”

Rose is a licensed massage therapist and founder of Goddess of the Rose, where she offers Divine Touch Massage to help women, men, and couples gain a better understanding of how sexuality, sensuality and spirituality are all connected.

“Taking the time to explore our sexuality and sensuality is a path to empowerment,” says Rose. “When your senses are activated by Divine Touch, it empowers you to go about your life in a new way with different choices.”

Where the world looks at sexuality one way, Divine Touch looks at sexuality through a spiritual lens.

Rose says the Divine Touch massage draws on concepts similar to Tantra; all parts of the body are sensual in nature and will respond favorably to touch. Using various massage techniques, Rose can help you transcend to a more meaningful state of being.

“Many seek something deeper with a more meaningful connection, and I’ve always felt that my work is deeper,” says Rose. “It’s hard to love yourself if you can’t feel yourself from the inside out. When we see ourselves from a deeper place, we see life from a deeper place.”

Rose offers weekend retreats with classes on spiritual sensual massage and how to give and receive. She also offers individual sessions with Divine Touch.
