

Cantini Law Group Announces Fredericton Office Opening

Cantini Law Group is pleased to announce a new Law Office in Fredericton, New Brunswick

MONCTON, NEW BRUNSWICK, CANADA, February 28, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cantini Law Group – Announcing New Law Office In Fredericton, New Brunswick

Cantini Law is an established personal injury law firm with offices in Moncton, Halifax, Saint John, Charlottetown and now, Fredericton. We are focused on representing injured victims. By choice, we only represent those who have been seriously injured — we never represent insurance companies. We are committed to fighting for regular people who have had their lives turned upside down because of an accident. Insurance companies have professionals working on their team. Likewise, so should you.

At Cantini Law, we focus our entire practice on the areas of personal injury and long-term disability. You can see for yourself that we maintain a proven track record. Over the past 28 years, our clients have provided positive testimonials about how we have helped. We take much pride in our experience and the authority we have in the legal field. However, we are down-to-earth and always provide personalized legal services. You can expect to have an open, honest conversation with your lawyer about your situation.

Joe Cantini is the founder of Cantini Law Group and has practiced personal injury law since 1987. He has always supported and fought for the "little guy", the underdog, and injury law allows him to stand up for his clients against the insurance companies. Joe is an experienced trial lawyer and people have come to count on his reputation of being someone who will fight for their best interests. With thousands of clients over his years of practice, he has the know-how and expertise to secure the best compensation for the Cantini Law Group's clients.

Anyone who has been seriously injured needs to know their rights. Before making statements or talking to anyone, it is important that you have a lawyer representing your interests and giving you advice about your rights after an accident. You can turn to Atlantic Canada's injury lawyers.

We represent people on a contingency fee basis. This means legal fees are calculated as a percentage of any eventual settlement of your case. There are no upfront charges, and legal fees are not paid until we have received the settlement money from the insurance company. If there is no settlement, there is no fee. Additionally, we offer a free interview to review your case. You can sit with our team and discuss the elements of your situation openly. We are here to help you get answers to questions so you can make an informed decision. If you decide to retain our services, you can expect an update every 60 days about your case. We also provide hands-on advice on the claims process so you know what to expect as your claim progresses. Legal cases can range from personal injuries, to car accidents in Moncton to any type of serious injury.

There is no fee unless we are successful with your claim. Please contact us at Cantini Law by calling 800-606-2529 or visiting www.atlanticcanadainjurylawyers.com. We now have 5 offices in Atlantic Canada including Moncton, Halifax, Saint John, Charlottetown and Fredericton.
