

South Africa's Department of Human Settlements to support Captains of Construction and Infrastructure initiative

JOHANNESBURG, GAUTENG, SOUTH AFRICA, March 3, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- South Africa's National Department of Human Settlements announces its support of the 3rd annual Captains of Construction and Infrastructure Leadership Forum hosted as part of the 5th annual African Construction and Totally Concrete Expo. Both platforms will take place from 23 to 24 May 2017 at the Gallagher Convention Centre in Johannesburg, South Africa. The 2017 initiative welcomes South Africa's Department of Human Settlements as an Official Government Partner in 2017.

The 5th annual African Construction and Totally Concrete Expo sets the stage for increased communication and collaboration amidst public and private sector operators in Africa's built environment. The overall event attracts more than 250 exhibitors and over 9 000 participants on an annual basis to form Africa's mega infrastructure show and biggest gathering of construction professionals under one roof.

In 2017 the initiative includes the Women in Construction Awards hosted by The Honourable Susan Shabangu, Minister of Women in the Presidency in South Africa, as well as the Captains of Construction and Infrastructure Leadership Forum that will open with a keynote address delivered by The Honourable Lindiwe Sisulu, South Africa's Minister of Human Settlements. The Department of Human Settlements of South Africa is committed to the National Development Plan's 2030 vision of transforming human settlements and the spatial economy to create more functionally integrated, balanced and vibrant urban settlements.

South Africa's Department of Human Settlements continues its commitment to the facilitation and creation of sustainable Human Settlements and improved quality of household life through its role as Official Government Partner of the African Construction and Totally Concrete Expo. "The expo and forum combined allows the leadership of the Department of Human Settlements to get feedback from stakeholders and also to present their vision; it is an important forum," says General Ndivhuwo Wa Ha Mabaya, Head of Communications and Ministry Spokesperson for South Africa's Department of Human Settlements.

The Women in Construction Awards, held during the African Construction and Totally Concrete Expo, is a collaborative platform dedicated to recognising excellence and empowerment in Africa's built environment. The Captains of Construction and Infrastructure Leadership Forum, another co-located initiative, unites the continent's most competent and passionate industry leaders to identify bankable infrastructure projects, promote and develop effective public-private partnerships, and optimise spending.

The African Construction and Totally Concrete Expo caters for the entire African construction, cement and concrete industries. The audience includes architects, engineers, contractors, quantity surveyors, government representatives as well as suppliers of products and services to the industry. From indoor to outdoor experiences, workshops to prizes, there is something for everyone at the African Construction and Totally Concrete Expo 2017.
