

Hate crimes among the disabled & Jewish communities

Hate is a stain that must be removed from within anyone or any group of people that have this darkness in their hearts

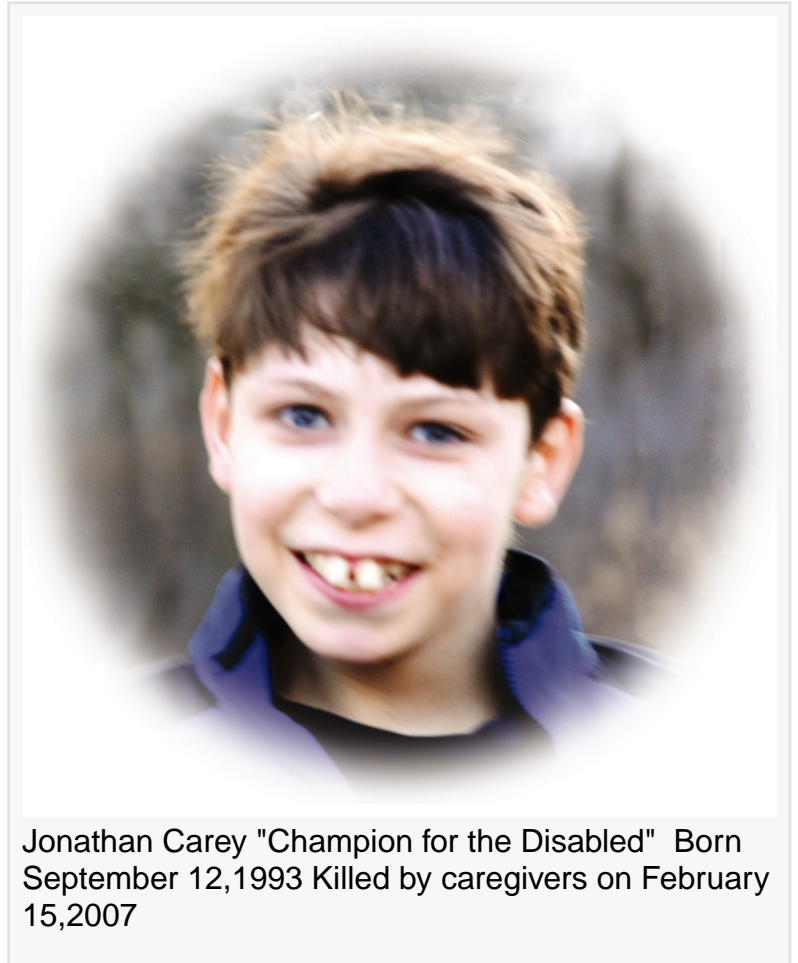

DELMAR, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- There is so much going on now that is surfacing publicly in the media regarding hatred and anti-Semitism which is evil. Let us call it what it really is. This evil along with other forms of evil and hatred towards people with disabilities must be rooted out and stopped before it continues to spread. Civil authorities only can do so much, this is a spiritual problem amongst some people that must see it for what it is and turn from it like all other forms of darkness. It is important to remind people of the horrors of the past so hopefully we do not relive them again. Hatred spread like wildfire in Hitler's time against the Jewish people, but many forget or may not know that others were also hated and deemed unworthy of living, people with disabilities. I do not want to minimize anything going on towards any group of people, but simply shine a light on another form of hatred and hate crime that must come out as well into the open so that it too will be addressed.

Burning synagogues and decimating Jewish cemeteries is a form of hatred without question, but so is looking the other way when the disabled are physically and sexually assaulted. These are both hate crimes. Threatening Jewish Community Centers and Jewish children's safety and lives is hatred, but so is denying the disabled 911 emergency medical and police services when they are a victim of a crime or in medical need. It is hard to fathom that over 50 years have passed since Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. began fighting against such hatred and discrimination that innocent and extremely vulnerable children and adults with disabilities are being victims of such deadly discrimination. These are hate crimes folks. These are crimes against humanity, but let's look at the even bigger picture, they are crimes against God. Both these hate crimes shine a light on a much bigger problem, but also point the way to the vital need for a transformation revival and a turning back to God and His ways like never before. We are desperately in need of a spiritual awakening and those that continue to hold hatred in their hearts towards anyone or any group of people and then act upon it in any way that is illegal must be held accountable swiftly.

As the father of a precious disabled child named Jonathan that is no longer here with us, but in heaven because he was a victim of crimes, I applaud everyone taking actions to stop these horrible crimes. Let's all hope and pray that the hatred which is a spiritual problem will be spoken of by spiritual leaders that know and understand that God is the answer, that love is the answer. I have seen murderers transformed and forgiven by God while involved in a prison ministry years ago. The scriptures tell us in Luke 7:47 "to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little." I understand that God has and continues to forgive me much as I ask for it and that I too am to do the same and forgive no matter what. I forgave the two men involved in my son Jonathan's death, it is possible and we can do the right thing and let go of all offenses. We can let go of all specific things done against us so that we do not allow anything but love to remain within us. It will either be love or hate or a mixture of both, so let us all get rid of everything that is not love.

Why people do what they do is a mystery sometimes, but I have been told hurting people hurt people. I have learned that if hatred is in the heart and if it's been in there for a long time or in families or people groups for a long time it has become a major stronghold, which can and must be broken. Turning to God, forgiving from the heart and genuinely releasing the offenses which has allowed the anger, bitterness, hatred and even murder to remain is the only answer. People that harm or threaten the harm of Jewish people or innocent children or adults with disabilities or anyone else must be stopped and jailed, if not swiftly transformed. We as a civil society have State and federal laws, we have a U.S. Constitution, and there are consequences for our actions.

In regards to people with disabilities, the group of people I advocate for full time the hidden hatred and discrimination must come to light, as well, so it can be stopped. It is evil to deny a person with a disability, primarily those living in residential care facilities and group homes, immediate 911 medical and police first responder services and help when they are victims of crimes, in medical need or when they have stopped breathing. The 911 emergency first responders are in all communities and are in place to assist everyone, including the disabled. Yet, readers need to know this hatred, deadly discrimination and yes evil, these hate crimes continue to date against people with disabilities throughout New York State. The next level of hatred and hate crimes against the disabled is the purposeful covering up the extreme damages –the rapes and deaths occurring in astronomical scope throughout New York State's extremely dangerous and deadly system. We can stop most of this evil by standing up and speaking out, loud and clear, against it, but strongly for righteousness. We can do what is right and just for the Jewish community that make up approximately 2.2 percent of America's population and the disabled community which make up approximately 9 times greater a number of Americans or 19% of our population. Let the love of God and the boldness that pervaded Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his heart arise within you. Stand up and speak out against such hatred, evil and gross injustices.

No longer can the disabled be treated as a lesser valuable group of people and denied their basic rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness and be denied 911 emergency services and assistance. Preventing our most vulnerable from receiving immediate emergency police assistance is denying this special group of people their equal right to equal protection of laws which also denies them justice. This is dead wrong. Stand with us for "equal rights" and "civil rights" for people with disabilities in New York State and throughout our great country by signing our petition at www.jonathancareyfoundation.org. No longer can 911 be bypassed. 911 call systems must be immediately called by all mandated reporters regarding all physical and sexual abuse, gross negligence of care, significant and suspicious injuries and when a person with a disability is in medical distress or has stopped breathing. <http://jonathancareyfoundation.org/donate/>
