

Config Consultants Hires Dave Farley to Manage Rapidly Expanding CPQ Practice

Config Consultants announces Dave Farley, former Product Manager at Oracle Corporation, as their Vice President of CPQ.

PLEASANTON, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dave has spent his entire career in the CPQ field, starting at Accenture and then working with the BigMachines consulting team through their acquisition by Oracle. As Vice President of CPQ, Dave will guide and influence all CPQ related activities at Config Consultants, starting in the presales process through the successful launch and maintenance of each CPQ implementation.

“Our quest to maintain our position as Industry and Process experts in CPQ, coupled with a surge in front office sales transformations led us to look for a thought leader and a product expert to lead our team. We are fortunate to have found someone like Dave to fulfill this role who fit our culture of innovation and exceptional service. He will play a key role in overseeing & managing our CPQ practice.”

– Vinay Kruttiventi, President and CEO, Config Consultants

Prior to joining Config Consultants, Dave was a Product Manager for Oracle, working on the CPQ Cloud platform. He has a Bachelor’s Degree in Computer Science from the University of Notre Dame.
