Indie Prize - Be a winner

“

We will be happy to collaborate and award your winner with the international Indie Prize scholarship: a guaranteed spot at Indie Prize showcase, passes to Casual Connect and free accommodations.”

*Yuliya Moshkaryova Director,
Indie Prize and Casual
Connect*

Indie Prize Showcases at Casual Connect offers participants an opportunity to learn and network with other indie game developers and showcase their games, skill sets and ideas to publishers and potential partners.

All games must be presented at ECGC for in person judging and must be in a playable form with a minimum of 15 minutes of gameplay.

Independent qualification / status:

1. Company is independent and majority owned by the team not investors.
2. At least 50% of the submitted game IP must to be owned by the development team

3. Applicants MUST be able to attend Casual Connect, August 1-3, 2017, Seattle, WA.

The East Coast Game Conference, the largest gathering of video game professionals on the east coast, provides video game developers an engaging program as well as opportunities for networking and collaboration.
