The Casiii Multilingual Hebrew Keyboard Cover for Macbook has many benefits; the following are only a few. It protects dust and dirt from entering your computer through the keyboard. It helps protect from dangerous spills that can ruin your computer. Also, it protects your computers keyboard from natural wear-and-tear of the years, helping to maintain your computers overall value. Lastly and most importantly, the keyboard cover feels great to the touch with form-fitting soft (yet durable) ultrathin silicone that protects your keyboard but doesn’t get in your way like other (low quality) keyboard covers might.

Those that have tried the product so far have only had raving reviews: “This is my second purchase of Casiii product. It fits perfectly to my MacBook Air (13-inch, 2015). The cover is sleek and protects the keyboard. Compared with some other models out there on Amazon, I like Casiii for its color selection, and the marked short vowels on the keyboard, which makes typing much easier for me. Some letters wear out on my previous silicone case (also from Casiii) after one year's extensive use, and I am purchasing a new one from the same seller to replace it.”

Casiii is a growing computer accessories company that aims to offer its premium, high-quality products at a comparable price to other large similar companies. Casiii has already made an impact with their Eco-friendly, durable, and affordable line of keyboard covers.
