

Probist unveils new features for YouTube Channel owners

A tool that converts YouTube channels into auto-synced branded websites and provides social syncing.

ISLAMABAD, PUNJAB, PAKISTAN, March 10, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Probist, the world's most popular YouTube Channel auto-syncer for Facebook is upgrading to new features. Today onwards, Probist users can create their own branded and auto-synced YouTube video website without having to write a single line of code. The new release incorporates an array of supporting features to help video enthusiasts achieve immense success and growth through video content - independently.

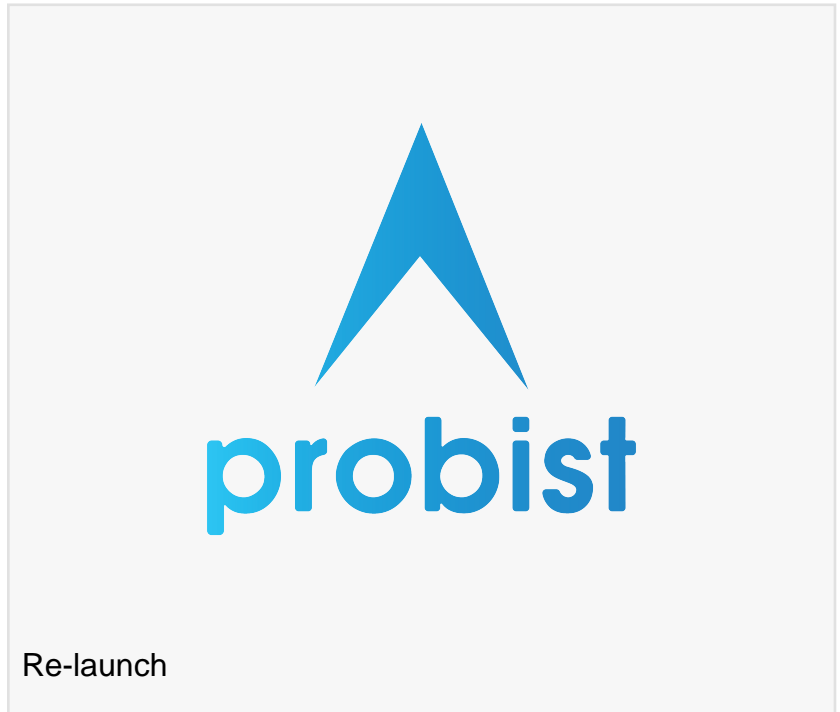

Till date, YouTube has over 505,347,842 channels and 1,300,000,000 users. Amidst this ever growing popularity of video content, YouTube channel owners face serious competition among themselves. Through Probist's 3 click video website maker, channel owners can maximise their own web traffic and visitor loyalty without worrying about redirection to competitor channels. The website layout is customizable through a variety of themes. Thanks to the auto-syncing feature, users don't have to upload each YouTube video individually on their social platforms or website. Probist also presents channel owners with opportunities to earn more through various monetization tools. Users can now take advantage of various useful website integrations with Social platforms, MailChimp and AdSense to enhance communication with visitors and increase revenue.

In addition to its 3 click sign-up and responsive interface; Probist is free for all via a 30 day trial version. Users can enjoy all features including free Probist domain, hosting and website creation along with 1 add-on integration. After the free trial period ends users can upgrade to a Basic, Pro or Entrepreneur plan with a custom domain and much more with minimal cost.
