

Emotion Code and Body Code Practitioner Vera Ehmann of Ripples of Peace to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

BELMONT, MASSACHUSETTS, USA, March 14, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Vera Ehmann is a Certified Emotion Code and Body Code Practitioner and the founder of Ripples of Peace, an energy healing practice dedicated to magnifying joy and compassion through the removal of emotional baggage.

“Our emotional baggage prevents us from enjoying happiness, love and connection,” says Vera. “The more these harmful emotions are released, the more compassionate, joyful and happy we can become.”

The Emotion Code is an energy healing technique that identifies and releases trapped emotions from negative past experiences. These trapped emotions can cause depression, anxiety; they can block people from love and happiness and make them feel disconnected from others. These trapped emotions can also manifest physically, causing acute pain and even illness. Releasing trapped emotions allows the body to heal.

Through the Emotion Code, clients can achieve balance, relieve stress, support their natural healing ability, as well as build love and connection.

“I feel what I do is making the world a more joyful and compassionate place one released trapped emotion at a time,” says Vera.

Vera says her gift is the breadth of her background. She's survived a number of tumultuous events and relationships. Through the Emotion Code, she found her way back to peace and joy.

“I had contracted a degenerative disease called myasthenia gravis,” recalls Vera. “My husband and I had been married for 45 years, but it was quite a burden for him too. I got into a summit where I heard Dr. Bradley Nelson speak. I made a phone call to a practitioner and I was able to stand more. That was exciting. I continued to work with her and the physical and emotional improvement happened very quickly.”

Vera says serving as a Certified Emotion Code and Body Code Practitioner is the best way she knows to express her gratitude for her transformation from an invalid to an individual with renewed purpose.

“I’m most proud of the relationships that have improved in my life,” says Vera. “When we can remove these trapped emotions, we can make the world a better place one person at a time.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Vera Ehmann in an interview with Jim Masters on March 17th at 11am EST.
