The presenting sponsor of the world premiere showing is BankNewport.

Please note that due to his hectic schedule, Bill Belichick will not be able to attend the event.

Immediately following the showing there will be a brief Q & A session with the producer and director of the film, Tim Gray and three 1st wave D-Day veterans of Omaha Beach.

About D-Day: Over Normandy: The World War II Foundation hired one of France's top aerial Drone camera companies to film some of the most iconic locations in Normandy from D-Day. The result is some of the most spectacular scenes of the landing beaches viewers have ever seen.

The WWII Foundation tells the story of these famous locations utilizing ONLY aerial footage from our Drone camera, along with archival footage from June 6, 1944.

The foundation is also matching 1-2 D-Day veterans with each location so they can share their stories of where they were and what they were doing on D-Day.

The film will air around Memorial Day on over 100 public television stations around the country.

TGM/WWII Foundation films rank in the top-5 of most requested programs nationally by American Public Television affiliates. Our films air in the majority of major, medium and small television markets around the country, giving our sponsors and supporters maximum visibility for their support.

About the World War II Foundation and Tim Gray Media: The Rhode Island based World War II Foundation is one of the nation's leading non-profit organizations committed to educating future generations about the enormous sacrifices and achievements of sixteen million Americans who served in WWII.

The WWII Foundation tells the stories of those in Europe and the Pacific who fought in the war and also experienced its horrific events, from survivors of the Holocaust to citizens of European countries who endured German occupation to those who witnessed the Blitz in England.

The foundation travels the world to film these documentaries, spending a great deal of time in both Europe and the Pacific. With a strong focus on film and television documentaries which air nationally on PBS stations, the Foundation has successfully produced a series of 18 award-winning documentaries ranging from 1 hour to 90 minutes.

Past narrators and supporters of our films include: Gov. Tom Ridge (Sec. Homeland Security), Dan Aykroyd (actor), Curt Schilling (MLB), Tom Selleck (actor), Tim McCarver (MLB/Announcer), Kyle Chandler (actor), Matthew Broderick (actor), Dale Dye (actor) and Damian Lewis (actor).

The WWII Foundation & TGM is currently in post-production on five additional films including: USS Arizona: A Journey Home (Matthew Broderick/2017), Massacre at Malmedy (2018), Return to Pointe-du-Hoc (2018), Fighting for My Country (2019) and Rommel's Son (2019).
