

Washington, DC Area Singer Eddie Jones to Perform at the 2017 National Cherry Blossom Festival

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, March 17, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Billboard charting Pop singer/songwriter Eddie Jones will perform at the 90th National Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, DC, on March 25. This scheduled performance comes at an exciting time for Eddie – as his first single, “Think I’m in Love,” recently received distribution by Universal Music Group.

Major label support has given Eddie’s single—now available on Spotify, iTunes, Amazon, and other major digital music platforms—great exposure that has helped garner nearly 400,000 Spotify streams to date. Eddie’s independent music label, Sky’s the Limit Entertainment, originally released his debut album, “Topic of Discussion,” and “Think I’m in Love” single in 2016, and both the album and single charted Billboard that year.

Eddie, a 23-year-old northern Virginia resident, is enthusiastic about the mounting success of his music career and delights in sharing his musical talent with listeners from near and far. About his National Cherry Blossom Festival performance next week, Eddie says, “I’m grateful to the National Cherry Blossom Festival selection committee for giving me the opportunity to perform for the many visitors coming to DC for the 90th anniversary of this special Festival. With my March 25 performance, I hope to touch the hearts and earn the musical appreciation of the audience.”

This free outdoor event will take place at the Tidal Basin Welcome Area and ANA Performance Stage between noon and 6 p.m. ET. Eddie will perform five of his original songs, including his current single “Think I’m in Love,” from 4:15 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. ET. The address for the Tidal Basin Welcome Area and ANA Performance Stage is 1501 Maine Avenue SW, Washington, DC 20024. The closest metro is Smithsonian.
