PUNE, INDIA, March 17, 2017 /
EINPresswire.com/ --

The analysts forecast the global baby changing stations market to grow at a CAGR of 3.57% during the period 2017-2021.

Baby changing stations provide a smooth surface that facilitates the changing of diapers. These stations are situated at a convenient position in public restrooms and home nurseries. Baby changing stations are of two types, which include horizontal baby changing stations and vertical baby changing stations. Baby changing stations are either made of steel or plastic. The global baby changing stations market is dominated by plastic baby changing stations due to their low price and effectiveness in comparison with steel baby changing stations.
