

Pain Therapeutics Attendee List Released Featuring Scientific Leaders and Top Industry Experts

Pain Therapeutics 2017 returns to Central London for the 17th year on 22nd & 23rd May 2017

LONDON, ENGLAND, UNITED KINGDOM, March 20, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aimed at capturing the latest clinical developments in pain management, SMi Group's timely Pain Therapeutics summit will gather an audience of scientific pioneers and industry experts when it takes place on 22nd and 23rd May in Central London, UK.

With still around 9 weeks to go, SMi Group are delighted to release a preliminary list of attendees featuring the industry's most senior experts and KOLs in pain management. Already 75% full, Pain Therapeutics 2017 has become one of SMi's most sought after events emphasising a widespread common goal in addressing opioid dependency and understanding human pain phenotypes.

The poster features a dark blue background with several anatomical illustrations of human joints and the spine, some highlighted in red and purple. The text is white and light blue, with the event title in a large, bold font. A date box in the center contains the dates '22 - 23 MAY 2017' in white text on a red background. At the bottom, the website URL and SMi logo are displayed.

Dr Randall Stevens, Chief Medical Officer from Centrexion Therapeutics and a keynote speaker at Pain Therapeutics 2017 said:

...we have not yet addressed the underlying problem – better non-addictive therapies to control a variety of painful conditions”

Centrexion Therapeutics

"We can limit opioid use, and we can treat the dependence/addiction, but we have not yet addressed the underlying problem – better non-addictive therapies to control a variety of painful conditions. Until we bring a number of better therapies to the market, there remains a limitation in the arsenal of analgesics to treat people with pain."

Nations attending will include Australia, Belgium, France, Germany, Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland, Taiwan, United Kingdom and USA.

A snapshot of organisations confirmed to join Pain Therapeutics 2017 include:

AiCure | Amgen | Analgesia Partnership | Apollo Therapeutics | AstraZeneca | Bayer | Biogen | Cara Therapeutics | Centre for Human Drug Research | Centrexion Therapeutics | Clermont University | Convergence Pharmaceuticals | Daiichi Sankyo | Eli Lilly | ENSCCF | Grunenthal | Innopain | J&J | Kings College London | MSD | MRC Technology | Mundipharma | Nektar Therapeutics | NeuroDigm | Novartis | Pharmaleads | Transpharmation | University of Manchester | US Army Institute for Surgical Research | Zoetis
