PORTLAND, OREGON, UNITED STATES, March 22, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- PORTLAND, OR - March 20, 2017 - Groove Development is a mobile app development firm based in Portland, Oregon. The company is well-known regionally for its mobile application development. The company has built a reputation as an innovative firm that produces beautiful applications for Android or iPhone devices. Most recently, the company has released a branded application for StaffUp, LLC., a Staffing and Recruitment industry branded app service.

From StaffUp:

The apps are branded perfectly for each client, tested and released to the Apple App Store and Google Play Store very quickly, we are very happy with the Groove Development relationship...

"We bring a collaborative approach to building the StaffUp branded apps," says Founder Rick Richard "StaffUp has a vision of how the branded apps should look and work it is our job to translate that vision into a working app, tailored for each Staffing company. To be a part of StaffUp's success feels amazing."

Groove Development takes pride in bringing the most creative and engaging solutions to their clients. The company not only develops apps but also the cloud infrastructure that supports them. They work with their clients to determine a design and approach that will meet their needs, vision, and budget.
