NAPLES, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, March 27, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Friday, March 10, 2017, pianists Karen Davis and Anne Roberts performed a special recital, called "Dance Music for Two Pianos" at the salon of Euro Pianos Naples, who delights in hosting events for this city's cultural community. With limited seating of 65, it was a sold-out performance just days after it was announced. Single ticket prices were $50.

Anne Roberts received her musical education from the University of Michigan School of Music, Theatre and Dance. She graduated with a degree in piano performance and music education. Ms. Roberts has been attending Naples music events numerous times both as a guest and as a commanding performer.

Karen Davis, besides being a consummate concert pianist, is also one of the executive producers at the Salk Science and Music Series, a program which features fascinating science talks wedded to classical and jazz musical performances.

The Friday night March 10th concert featured such masterpieces as Leonard Bernstein's Symphonic Dances from West Side Story, Dances from Samuel Barber's Souvenirs, and others.

"We are pleased that this event resonated with the public. It was definitely a success," said Sunny Reuter, Vice President of Euro Naples. "The great city of Naples has a deep and complex cultural life, and we are always proud to be a contributor. Anne Roberts and Karen Davis, are always welcomed guests here."
