

Global Real Estate Licence Adds WorkoutScripts To The Online Business Platform

PALO ALTO, CALIFORNIA, CANADA, March 27, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Palo Alto, CA, Global Real Estate Licence, the provider of online real estate education and technology solutions, is pleased to announce the addition of WorkoutScripts, an innovative speech enhancement feature, to its online real estate business platform. . WorkoutScripts is a game changing feature which will help real estate sales professionals enhance their verbal skills by teaching them what to say to their clients and how to say it so they can close more deals. WorkoutScripts is designed to help real estate professionals attract more business and guide their clients with confidence by a combination of science and neuro-linguistic programming. This feature would be available with all editions of real estate licence with each licence having its own real estate scripts library.

“Knowledge means nothing if you are unable to use it,” says Tariq Khursheed, CEO of GREL. “We sometimes see the smartest people living on welfare because they can’t communicate properly. WorkoutScripts is a combination of science and technology which is designed to combat this. With WorkoutScripts, you get hundreds and hundreds of neuro-linguistic scripts which you can practice, practice, practice to internalize the right messaging. At the same time, you get feedback in real estate on your version so you can improve your speech delivery.” he added.

Whether you are a real estate agent, a property developer or an investor, there will be important meetings in which you will need to confidently communicate your message, convince the other party, and make more money. This might be a buyer or seller for an agent, a business partner for an investor, or a sales representative talking to potential buyers. In all of these scenarios, WorkoutScripts helps you use the right words at the right time and in right way to increase your chances of success.
