NEW YORK (March 27, 2017) — Popular New York City podcast, The SDR Show, hosted by rock radio personality Ralph Sutton and comedian Big Jay Oakerson, will welcome former Fox News anchor turned rock journalist Juliet Huddy, live, in-studio tonight at 9pm EST/6pm PST.

Huddy, who spent nearly two decades in television, as both a highly-rated network news anchor and national talk show host, has interviewed everyone from Condoleeza Rice to the Kardashians. She filed a high-profile, sexual harassment lawsuit against Fox News TV talk show host and author Bill O'Reilly last year and settled in January 2017. Currently Huddy has currently traded her news anchor duds for a leather and now hosts heavy metal show, "Blonde and Crossbones," with comedian and VH1's "That Metal Show" host Don Jamieson.

"We are very excited to talk to Juliet Huddy, a fellow rock n roller and former Fox News host after Bill O'Reilly scandals, and various Fox News craziness. She's moved away from news, and gone full-fledged into rock n roll mode," says Ralph Sutton, "She's a woman after my own heart. We will talk sex, rock and much more."
