

SIBOR FOCUSED ON COMBATTING ISLAND'S DRUG EPIDMIC

SIBOR PARTNERS WITH CARL'S HOUSE TO FUND ONLINE WEBINARS

STATEN ISLAND, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, March 29, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Staten Island Board of Realtor's Young Professionals Group has announced its newest community initiative geared toward helping combat the drug epidemic the borough is currently facing. The group has aligned itself with Carl's House, a 100% free community resource center for addicts and their families, to kick off a series of online webinars for those struggling with addiction and their families. Campaign to begin with an event on March 30th, 6-9pm at Metro Bar & Bistro located 2561 Hylan Blvd. Admission to the event is $40 per person and includes a buffet dinner.

"We welcome the opportunity to support Carl's House, an initiative of the Carl V. Bini Memorial Fund, in its mission of bridging the gap between addiction and recovery for addicts and their families," said YPN Chair Phyllis Cangro.

The webinar series will be led by professionals in their field and will be a live stream of meetings already taking place in Carl's House such as Bereavement Groups, Family Counseling and more. There will also be specific programming built out specifically for online viewership which will include virtual questions and answers. Exact schedule and times will be announced in the coming weeks.

This is a community issue that can only be helped by community involvement.”

Marco DiDonna

“We're proud of this partnership,” said Marco DiDonna of Carl's House. “This is a community issue that can only be helped by community involvement, and the online forum will allow people who may be afraid or embarrassed to be physically present at a meeting the opportunity to get the help and information they need.”

Since it's opened its doors roughly 8 months ago, Carl's House has helped over 650 people get the help they need toward recovery. For more information about Carl's House or the upcoming webinars please visit: www.binifund.org.
