

David Wiener Serves as Moderator at High Performance Leadership Conference

Thin Air – Park City, Utah April 5-7, 2017

PARK CITY, UTAH, US, March 31, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Park City, Utah – March 31, 2017 – Thin Air is a 3-day retreat in Park City, Utah, bringing together some of the country's boldest thinkers, innovators, and entrepreneurs to discuss the latest thoughts on high performance ideas for companies. As a serial entrepreneur, David is founder and CEO of David Wiener Ventures, a think tank for highly innovative business opportunities, developing complete programs that bring opportunities to fruition through carefully integrated design, engineering, production, marketing, sales, product positioning and corporate identity development.

In addition to developing its own products and businesses, DWV's advisory services have been sought after by some of the world's best-known companies, such as Ferrari, Porsche, Nike, Ben & Jerry's, Columbia Sportswear, Old Navy, the U.S. Ski Team, Formula One and Indy Car teams.

David will be moderating two panels to discuss the evolution of corporate culture at varying stages of a company's growth. "I am honored to be part of this dynamic conference and to moderate these panels. Too often, corporate culture is overlooked as an integral part of a company's success or failure. At Thin Air, there is a deep recognition that the performance of a company is driven by its culture," stated Wiener.
