

Carolina Golf Cars Celebrates 35 Years by Giving Away Free Custom Golf Cart

Carolina Golf Cars celebrates 35 years of business and as a thank you to their customers they are going to give away a FREE CUSTOM GOLF CART to one luck winner.

CHARLOTTE, N.C., USA, April 4, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Carolina Golf Cars is celebrating its 35th year in business by giving back to its customers. Through the entire month of April, Carolina Golf Cars will be accepting free entries for the chance to win a free customized golf cart. This is a way of thanking both customers and the community for 35 wonderful years as the region's top golf cart distributor.

Entering the contest is simple and free. Visit us online or in person and provide your name, email address and phone number. Entrants can also increase their chances of winning by liking the Carolina Golf Cars Facebook page or by coming down to the store to test drive a new or used golf cart.

The winner will receive a custom built golf cart with a generous value of up to $8,500. That includes modifications and upgrades, but cannot be combined with any other coupons or discounts. The contest runs through the entire month of April and entries will stop being taken on May 1st. A winner will then be chosen and contacted directly.

In the event that the winner has purchased a golf cart during the month of April, that individual will be entitled to refund up to $8,500. Those who enter the contest must be at least 18 years of age.

This contest is about more than just winning a free golf cart, it is also about showing appreciation for customer loyalty. Carolina Golf Cars is thankful to the people of the Carolinas and others throughout the country who have contributed to 35 years of success. Carolina Golf Cars does not take that success lightly, which is proven by this generous giveaway.

Carolina Golf Cars is also ready to continue its service for another 35 years by providing a vast
