

Vohne Liche Kennels and Kinetic Dog Food Announce 2017 K-9 of the Year

Officer Jonathan Kolb and K-9 Cento of the Aurora Police Department in Aurora, Indiana named winners.

CINCINNATI, UNITED STATES, April 7, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Vohne Liche Kennels, a full service K-9 training facility for Police and Military Service Dogs, and Kinetic Performance Dog Food, named Officer Jonathan Kolb and K-9 Cento of the Aurora Police Department in Aurora, Indiana as the winners of the 2017 K-9 of the Year contest. Officer Kolb and Cento will be awarded a one year supply of Kinetic Performance Dog Food for the winning photo submission. In addition, Cento's winning photo will be featured in Kinetic and Vohne Liche media and marketing materials for 2017.

Officer Kolb and Cento were selected as the winners by Vohne Liche owner, Ken Lickliger, and other members of the Vohne Liche Team. "We work with dogs and handlers from 46 states in the U.S. and more than 20 foreign countries each year," said Lickliger. "Officer Kolb and Cento are a great example, from right here in our home state, of our program to develop the finest working police and military K-9 teams in the world."

"Vohne Liche Kennels is a great partner and well known as one of the best in the business when it comes to working police and military K-9 dogs and training," added Dave Dourson, Co-Founder of Kinetic Performance Dog Food. "We couldn't be prouder of working with them on this contest to help showcase working K-9 teams like Officer Kolb and Cento."

Cento is 6 ½ years old and has only been paired up with Officer Kolb for a few months. In referencing the photo, Officer Kolb shared, "The winning photo was actually submitted by Cento's previous handler before we were paired up. Cento is a veteran and never seems too shy around a camera so we have a lot of great working photos."
