

Avis Check-in Agent Surprised by Vehicle Condition but Delivers Positive Experience to FICO Czar and Child Guardian Howe

SubscriberWise founder and FICO global phenomenon David Howe returns rental to Fort Myers and gets no-nonsense support from check-in agent and manager on duty.

FORT MYERS, FL, USA, April 12, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SubscriberWise (www.subscriberwise.com), the nation's largest issuing CRA for the communications industry and the leading advocate for children victimized by identity fraud, announced today the successful rental termination by SubscriberWise founder and national child guardian David Howe at the Avis Car Rental Agency located at the SW FL Fort Myers International Airport.

Avis, West Palm Beach International Airport

The rental originated at West Palm Beach on Monday, April 10, 2017, and involved two back-to-back vehicles assigned to the global FICO Czar and Vantage Score triple-grand-slam master champion, which each included substantial and unacceptable damage (<http://www.einpresswire.com/article/375496488/howe-to-sen-rubio-avis-rental-demands-predictable-and-uniform-industry-standards-as-consumers-face-danger-and-liability>).

What was an exception -- and also a positive experience -- was the kind and professional encounter offered by the two employees who helped me with the rental return process.”

As a result of the potentially dangerous rental, including possible financial liability that may have resulted from the previously damaged vehicle and wrecked parts, baby-keeper Howe promptly alerted Senator Marco Rubio and several senior investigators at the Florida Attorney General's office, including Director Victoria Butler about the situation.

“I returned the previously damaged Avis rental to the SW FL Fort Myers International Airport location yesterday afternoon,” confirmed David Howe. “And since the criminal victimization and attempted financial extortion by National Car Rental at the SW FL Fort Myers Airport International Airport last October (<http://www.einpresswire.com/article/371758426/david-e-howe-on-capitol-hill-to-describe-fl-rsw-national-car-rental-theft-attempt-for-u-s-senator-marco-rubio-s-staff>), I have marked anxiety and concern each time I conclude the rental and initiate the check-in process. In fact, I've dramatically reduced my use of rentals while increasing use of Greyhound Bus, Amtrak, public transportation, and Uber (<http://www.einpresswire.com/article/369545696/uber-dependence-intensifies-for-u-s-credit>).

"I also have my recording device ready and active at the moment I exit the vehicle as a result of the criminal encounter. In other words, following the experience with National Car Rental, there will be no doubt about the circumstances of the encounter -- including the condition of the vehicle at rental termination.

"And to be sure, this is the same device that I used to expose the criminal scam by National Car Rental last October," Howe added (<https://www.einpresswire.com/article/358354722/verizon-vtext-server-technology-instrumental-for-national-car-rental-crime-victim-and-u-s-credit-czar-david-howe>). "It's also the same type of device that a number of courageous passengers used the other day to implicate United Airlines for its disgusting and inhumane treatment of our fellow human citizen and brother, Dr. David Dao.

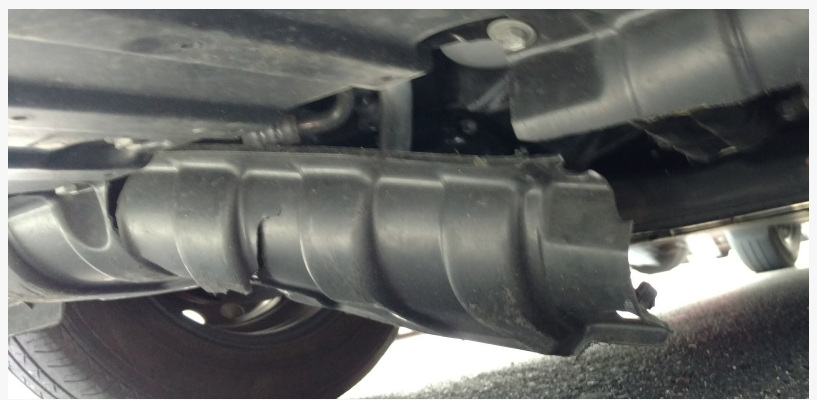

"Yes, shame on United Airlines for this most despicable display of corporate greed, cowardice, and outrageous act of violence against a fellow human being and dedicated caregiver to others.

"I salute these passengers for their courage exposing United Airlines. I hope others will act similarly when they see injustice.

"I also am hopeful the United States Department of Justice will investigate this unjust violence against a gentle and fully-paid confirmed customer as an act of crime suitable for prosecution to the fullest extent of U.S.A. law.

"Yesterday, upon the anxiety-producing rental return in Fort Myers, there was no exception with my personal protection protocol," Howe continued. "What was unexpected -- and also a positive experience -- was the kind and professional encounter offered by the two employees who helped me with the rental return process.

“Rather than immediately confront and accuse me for the preexisting damage – exactly the behavior delivered by the National Car Rental last October – I was greeted kindly and treated right. The agent also took extra time so that I could point out the areas of pre-existing damage and concern.

“And instead of initiating a formal incident report to falsely implicate me in the same way National Car Rental had last October (<http://www.einpresswire.com/article/358162466/david-howe-provides-lee-port-authority-florida-ag-and-wink-news-sablan-proof-of-crimes-at-national-car-rental>) – the agent expressed genuine discontent that I was asked to drive this rental, even after I notified the West Palm Beach Airport agents about the significant undercarriage damage.

“Indeed, I really appreciate this check-in agent for his professional disposition, his assistance, and his concern. I recommend that Avis select him for new employee training, as well as train-the-trainer scenarios that may be indicated for Avis personnel.

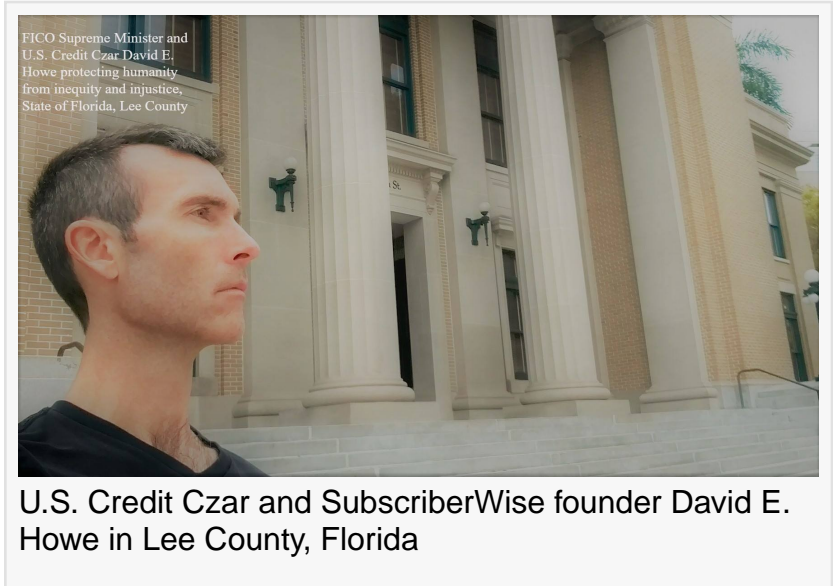

“I then met the Avis manager on duty as suggested by the check-in agent. His name is Michael. He also provided me an excellent and customer-friendly experience. He noted the pre-existing damage on my final receipt. He never once accused or attempted to implicate me for the vehicle’s pre-existing damage.

“Michael and I overviewed the vehicle together. I also explained in detail my overzealous actions to protect myself after surviving the fraud encounter six months earlier. I made it crystal clear for Michael that I didn’t want an unsuspecting renter to become a victim. I took another set of photographs for my records.

“Avis had already identified the vehicle as damaged and unsafe to drive, Howe acknowledged. “The vehicle was removed from the fleet and taken to a location where other cars that needed repair were located.

“Removing the vehicle was exactly the process indicated and one that any reasonable person would expect. Despite the bad judgment from one agent at the counter in West Palm Beach, I’m very pleased with the treatment Avis provided at SW FL Fort Myers International Airport,” Howe stated. “However, this experience only reinforces the need for Congress to implement uniform and predictable standards for the car rental industry.

“Personal safety and financial liability remain a very real threat for renters everywhere as the federal government continues to offer the industry a free pass,” Howe concluded. “Congress and the rental agencies can expect that I will continue to advocate, not only for me -- but also for my sisters and brothers here and around the world -- until the problem is solved and consumers are protected.”

About David Howe and SubscriberWise

U.S. Credit Czar David Howe is the highest achieving credit scoring consumer in global banking and financial history since human beings started to count on their fingers. Howe intends to demystify consumer credit and credit scores for individuals everywhere by sharing his story and experiences. Credit and credit scores impact many areas of one's financial life. Excellent credit offers rewards and opportunities; adverse credit limits choices and costs real money.

Hearing the facts about credit scores from the only citizen of the world - living or deceased - to have achieved simultaneous perfect FICO 850 scores across every national repository and simultaneous perfect Vantage scores at Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion - as well as having obtained rankings in the 100th percentile across virtually every scoring model on the market – is intended to empower and encourage consumers who may be struggling with their credit and eager to get back on their feet.

Pursuing perfect credit is hardly the point and it shouldn't become an obsession; rather it is the fact that it's possible. It requires patience and extremely careful financial maneuvers over a very long period. And because no person can control life events, set-backs are inevitable. David Howe proves it's attainable despite his own challenges and life events during his near half-century existence on planet earth. Howe has literally invested decades with countless hours and thousands of dollars pursuing and mastering personal credit and FICO scores in particular. The effort has paid off and has not gone unnoticed.

Howe's passion with credit and risk management can be found everywhere in the industry today. Today SubscriberWise touches a U.S. consumer every minute of every hour of every day. In 2014, SubscriberWise was named winner in the CableFAX Tech Awards in the category of commercial software, among an incredibly competitive environment that was open to every MSO and tech vendor in North America.

Having directly prevented more child identity thefts than any single individual including law enforcement professionals nationwide, David Howe is recognized as one of the most productive and engaged child identity theft experts of the 21st century. Howe's expertise on the subject of identity theft has been shared with virtually all levels of state and federal law enforcement agencies including field agents from the FBI. In 2014, Howe was contacted by IBM's RedCell Counter Fraud and Financial Crimes Intelligence organization for training and information concerning child identity fraud. During his long career in telecommunications, Howe has exposed some of the most complex banking and financial crimes the U.S.A. has ever known or contemplated (<http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20150703005329/en/SubscriberWise-CEO-David-HoweBlows-Whistle-National>).

Despite being a dedicated and hard worker, Howe is a vagabond and minimalist who prefers to travel from city to city - on a whim - and at his sole discretion; rarely an agenda and often no place in particular. Howe is most contented with a simple existence, an eye on health and wellness, friends and family, warm and sunny climates, and - most especially - a morning coffee and an afternoon imbibe of red wine.

Howe holds an Associate and Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of Arts and Sciences at Kent State University with an academic focus in human behavior at the macro level, political science, and public administration. He is a member of Pi Gamma Mu, the country's oldest and preeminent honor society in the social sciences and Alpha Kappa Delta, the international sociology honor society.

Howe was among the first professionals in the nation to obtain the FICO Professional Certification. Howe was interviewed on the subject of perfect credit by BankRate.com and The Motley Fool and is the first and only citizen of the world to describe the details of perfect FICO and Vantage scores to U.S. reporters.

Howe produced and published two videos on the subject of perfect credit: FICO 850 Credit Report Facts and FICO Scores: The Facts.
