Christian Diaz was our Private Chef; he is a devoted worker who commits himself totally to the satisfaction of everyone aboard. He works together with you to make a menu that appropriately suits both your taste and lifestyle. Our amazing

The famous Isla Espiritu Santo was where the yacht took us, not forgetting a complete day of exhilarating whale watching as gigantic whales came close to our yacht, for a second I got frightened at that point but it was all good though. Another moment I would always remember was when Manta Rays came splashing down around us through the air, while dolphins shielded our way right under the yachts bow. Initially I have chartered yachts for several excursions using DayYachtCharters.com coming aboard with many wealthy and renowned friends and guests, and I have vowed to continue using the services of this reputable company, making them my first an ultimate choice for a first class arrangement in La Paz Baja California sur.

Off the Mexican state of Baja California Sur is where you can find Isla Espiritu which is an island in the Gulf of California. Only a narrow canal is what is separating the island from Isla Partida. It is the 12th largest island in the whole of Mexico with a land area of 80.763 square kilometers.
