

New Website Launch for Long Island's Best Chocolate Store

Just in time for Spring...The Chocolate Duck announces the launch of their new mobile responsive website!

HAUPPAUGE, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, April 17, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- "We are very excited about the launch of our new website," stated Christina Bissbee. "We continue to reinvest into our business with a dedication and passion our customers deserve to have."

The Chocolate Duck is a locally owned mom and pop shop that has established itself as Long Island's Chocolate and Cake making supply headquarters. The vast array of product selection is unrivaled by any other store on Long Island.

“

It was our pleasure & honor to work with Christina at The Chocolate Duck. We take tremendous pride in being The Chocolate Duck's partner when it comes to all of their digital marketing efforts.”

Patrick Pinto

“It was our pleasure and honor to work with Christina and everyone at The Chocolate Duck in helping bring their vision to life. We take tremendous pride in being their go-to partner when it comes to all of their digital marketing efforts.” Patrick Pinto, Chief Marketing Officer of BeeSeen Solutions.

This family business has been open for over 30 years, and has evolved from a local business into a leader in its industry across Long Island. They continue to look to expanding their reach, and believe that expanding their online presence will only assist them in obtaining their short and long-term goals. Christina who is nationally known for her award-winning cakes and desserts, has been showcased on the show Cake Wars. She is a remarkable talent, creating not only amazing designs but also the delicious taste that goes with it!

The Chocolate Duck offers classes such as, Rolled Fondant Designs, Chocolate Molding & Candy Making, Cookie classes, and many others.
