ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, April 19, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Not wanting their fans to wait any longer, the KAJ Brothers are releasing their new EP, Chivalry, at midnight tonight. It will be available on iTunes, Google Play, Amazon, Spotify, Apple Music and anywhere else music is sold.

Since word has leaked about the video for their lead single, She Wants to Dance, they have decided to release it a day early. It can be seen on YouTube at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jFmbMIYPI2E&feature=youtu.be>

The KAJ Brothers are a unique trio of pop, rock and R&B talent featuring masterful harmonies and exciting musicality. The band previously had success with stylistic interpretations of classical contemporary and R&B hits, but is releasing all original music on this 5-song project. Chivalry will show their versatility with a pop/funk style that will get hearts pumping.

“We are really excited about the new direction we took with this album,” Kyle Craichy says. “Our fans will still recognize the familiar blending of three distinct voices, but we have some high-energy dance numbers that will appeal to a new audience.”
