CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, April 25, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cloudbakers was certified as a great workplace by the independent analysts at Great Place to Work®. Cloudbakers earned this credential based on extensive ratings provided by its employees in anonymous surveys. A summary of these ratings can be found here.

In the last year, Cloudbakers has ranked in the Inner City 100, Inc. 5000, and continues to uphold their status as Google Cloud Premier Partner. Officially being named as a 'Great Place to Work' is a recognition the team is especially proud of.

"I founded Cloudbakers on the principle of making it a great place to work. I knew what I liked about companies and I knew what I didn't – my goal was to build this company with only the aspects I liked. This Great Place to Work certification is a validation of my lifelong dream," says Mitch Greenwald, Founder of Cloudbakers.

In the words of the company's new VP of Sales, Katie Bodell explains, "I recently rejoined the workforce after taking a few years off to be with my family and live abroad. The strong values of the organization and employees made it my top choice. The authenticity and transparency of Cloudbakers is further validated with the Great Place to Work Certification."
