ACC Global News Features Live Readings with Psychic & Spiritual Medium ANN KING of Energy Interactions on Psychic Readings & Energy Healing

ACC News Talk Radio Spotlights Ann King of Energy Interactions

Denver, CO – She doesn't have a catchy theme song like the Ghost Busters but she should. You will know what I mean once you've met her. "People work hard to make a life that is comfortable and successful and all too often hit a wall where they wonder what it has all been for. It can be fun to shake things up a bit," explained Ann King who is a Denver psychic, energy healer and hypnotherapist.

RESEARCH DEPARTMENT

Ann uses a lot of techniques to help people get unstuck and wake up from being on automatic. "There is no reason to throw away the life you have worked hard for and at the same time there is more to life than working and playing it safe – it's similar to helping people add colorful fruits and vegetables to their diets; our soul needs a diet of colorful experiences that connect us to something we can feel but cannot explain."

Ann is the 4th generation with intuitive gifts and the ability to speak with dead people. She was taught to keep her abilities to herself and like most of us she took a practical approach to living her life. After getting a degree in business management she went to work paying off her college debt and focusing on her career. She bought a home, fell in love, took some vacations, and advanced in her career.

Even though she was doing everything that was supposed to define success and make her happy – she kept feeling as if something was missing. Sound familiar?

Ann's client base consists of a wide range of individuals and business professionals that want to explore a different reality and learn to listen to their own internal compass. "It's common for people to hide their super power just as I did in order to live the life they think they are supposed to live. We all have an inner voice that urges us to be curious, to feel the reality of things we cannot see, to discover the dreams we have not brought out into the light." In a session with Ann people can expect compassion, a sense of humor, the safety to be honest with themselves, and a connection to different parts of their reality they don't usually pay attention to.

After years of being a word of mouth resource and working weekends and nights in addition to her day job, Ann launched Energy Interactions. Ann feels that recognizing and processing our energy is just as important as recognizing and processing our feelings. Our energy is at the core of the life experience we are having. She helps people every day by incorporating unparalleled intuition, professional and life experience, her ability to channel guides, and her training as a life coach. "Whether we work in person or by phone, I am focused on the client goals and needs. The work is always about the client and the client energy. I clear blocks in the energy field as a part of every session. Whether I am facilitating an entire family in conversation with a dead family member, or helping someone to achieve work-life balance, there is always a shift in their energy and therefore a shift in their life."
